

Spanish II

Language Objectives :: The student is expected to...

- engage in oral and written exchanges of learned material to socialize and to provide and obtain information.[1.A]
- demonstrate understanding of simple, clearly spoken, and written language such as simple stories, high-frequency commands, and brief instructions when dealing with familiar topics.[1.B]
- present information using familiar words, phrases, and sentences to listeners and readers.[1.C]
- demonstrate an understanding of the practices (what people do) and how they are related to the perspectives (how people perceive things) of the cultures studied.[2.A]
- demonstrate an understanding of the products (what people create) and how they are related to the perspectives (how people perceive things) of the cultures studied.[2.B]
- use resources (that may include technology) in the language and cultures being studied to gain access to information.[3.A]
- use the language to obtain, reinforce, or expand knowledge of other subject areas.[3.B]
- demonstrate an understanding of the nature of language through comparisons of the student's own language and the language studied.[4.A]
- demonstrate an understanding of the concept of culture through comparisons of the student's own culture and the cultures studied.[4.B]
- demonstrate an understanding of the influence of one language and culture on another.[4.C]
- use the language both within and beyond the school setting through activities such as participating in cultural events and using technology to communicate.[5.A]
- show evidence of becoming a lifelong learner by using the language for personal enrichment and career development.[5.B]