

HIGH DEMAND CAREER!

HVAC PROGRAM | Train Today @ DHS

PROGRAM INFORMATION

Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning (HVAC) is a 1-2- Year training program that will provide:

- ✓ An opportunity to learn entry level skills in refrigeration, electricity, residential air condition, building science and EPA Recovery
- ✓ A way to earn a HVAC Technician Level 1 Certification and EPA 608 Certification
- ✓ Internship and job opportunities
- ✓ An opportunity to earn 14 credit hours towards an Associate of Applied Science Degree at NCTC. For more information: <http://www.nctc.edu/career-technical-education/industrial-technology/hvac.html>

STUDENT INFORMATION

All students that sign up during registration will be invited to an information meeting that will provide specifics about the program. Students are required to do the following:

Requirements for the program:

- ❖ Must be a Junior or Senior
- ❖ Transportation provided back to Campus
- ❖ Offered 3 Blocks at DHS
- ❖ Fill out a Dual Credit Application to NCTC
- ❖ Course Books and Tools will be provided
- ❖ Pay Tuition for each semester classes
 - Tuition Assistance maybe available for qualified students
 - Tuition approx. $1400-$1600

FOR MORE INFORMATION, ATTEND THE PARENT MEETING AT DENTON HIGH SCHOOL ON JAN 15TH STARTING AT 6:00 PM

