

Announcing the Greater Lewisville Cares 2013 Stacey Condit Campbell Scholarship

Character counts and high school seniors who have demonstrated a dedication to volunteerism in their community are encouraged to apply for the Stacey Condit Campbell Scholarship.

Applications are now being accepted for this special scholarship sponsored by Greater Lewisville Cares (GLC), a 501(c)3 non-profit organization which seeks to match Denton County residents with local agencies in need of volunteers.

Two scholarships will be awarded on June 1 in the amount of $500 each to deserving Denton County student applicants. The scholarship money is intended to assist the recipients with tuition, books and/or living expenses related to their higher education.

Application Process for Scholarship Award Ends May 15.

Stacey Condit Campbell, founder of GLC, believes service at a young age fosters leadership skills and social responsibility for a lifetime. She also greatly values the insight and energy that youth bring to volunteering. “In her honor,” said Board President Dan Nelson, “GLC would like to recognize two extraordinary students for their outstanding service achievements.”

Eligibility:

All graduating high-school seniors may apply for the one-time scholarship and must meet the following requirements:

- Graduating high school seniors who are in good standing
- Plan on attending a U.S. 2- or 4-year academic, vocational, or technical college during the upcoming academic year
- Be a resident of Denton County, Texas or active member of GLC for minimum of one (1) calendar year prior to application period
- Be of good character and a contributing citizen to the community-at-large, with a significant number of volunteer hours in community service within the last 18 months.
- Demonstrate compassion and dedication through their acts of kindness and volunteerism.

Applying for the Award:

Students must complete the application at www.greaterlewisvillecares.org/scholarships. The application process requires students to write a one-page, double-spaced essay, using Times New Roman 12-point font, addressing the effect that volunteering has had on his or her life, using concrete examples from those experiences that demonstrate commitment to serving as a volunteer in the community. Essays not adhering to the appearance guidelines will not be read.

Administration of the Awards:

The Stacey Condit Campbell Scholarship Award will be administered through Greater Lewisville Cares. A selection committee, appointed by the GLC Board of Directors, will select the scholarship recipients. Scholarship funds will be mailed to the recipient's home address on or before June 30, 2013.
