How to Cite Articles and Essays Reprinted in the GALE LITERARY CRITICISM Publications and the LITERATURE RESOURCES FROM GALE Database

The Gale literary criticism volumes contain reprinted articles, essays and reviews from a variety of scholarly publications. Much of this material is reproduced in the online database, Literature Resources from Gale. When citing a source reprinted in either the Gale literary criticism print collection or the Literature Resources from Gale database, document the information for the original work and then cite the information for the Gale publication in which it was reprinted.

The citation formats shown here are based on guidelines from the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, 7th edition, 2009, section 5.5.6. Additional MLA format guides are available at <http://library.pensacolastate.edu/citing.shtml>. On the Works Cited page use a hanging indention format and double-space the citations. Single spacing was used here to save space.

CITING FROM THE GALE LITERARY CRITICISM VOLUMES:

To cite a previously-published article reprinted in a Gale literary criticism volume, cite the publication information for the original work. Add Rpt. in (Reprinted in), and give the title of the Gale literary criticism work and the publication information located on the title page of the Gale volume. Follow with the inclusive page numbers of the article cited. Finish the citation with the medium of publication (Print.) See the following examples:

Citing LITERATURE RESOURCES FROM GALE Database

All of the citations below are from Literature Resources from Gale, a subscription database available online to registered Pensacola State College students. Many, but not all, of the sources from the Gale print series are reproduced in this database.

Document the information for the original work in print, cite the name of the database in which the article was reproduced, Literature Resources from Gale (in italics), then add the medium of publication (Web.) followed by the date of access in day, month and year format followed by a period. On the Works Cited page use a hanging indention format and double space the citations. Single spacing was used here to save space.
