Labor Market and Inflation Continue Moderating

The last month of the year saw the bond market continue to rally as the Federal Reserve made its most dovish statement to date. For the third meeting in a row, the FOMC unanimously voted to leave rates unchanged. More importantly, the median dot from the updated Summary of Economic Projections showed the Federal Reserve was expecting more rate cuts in 2024. The median dot now reflects three 0.25% cuts compared to two 0.25% cuts reflected at the September meeting. After Jerome Powell's press conference, where he confirmed the committee discussed the timing of rate cuts, market participants priced in a more aggressive path for rate cuts. By the end of December, market participants were expecting six 0.25% cuts in 2024. With both the Federal Reserve and markets expecting some level of policy easing in 2024, the actual path will be determined by the next several months of economic data.

The labor market's resilience in the face of a historic rate hiking cycle has surprised many investors and has kept a soft landing in play. The labor market has softened substantially since 2022 and is now expanding at a more manageable pace. The labor force has been adding on average 185,000 employees in the last six months, down from 400,000 in 2022 and in line with historic averages. Today, there are 1.3 job openings for each unemployed person, down from a peak of 2 in March 2022. Workers are quitting at a lower rate as well, as they are less optimistic about the opportunity to switch jobs. Fewer job openings and job switching should keep a lid on wage growth.

The most recent inflation data showed that peak inflation is likely behind us and that inflation is tracking much closer to 2 percent. Over the last six months, the Personal Consumption Expenditures (PCE) index increased at a rate of 2.0%. Likewise, core PCE has increased at a rate of 1.9%. This is the first time since the fall of 2020 that inflation readings have been at or below the Federal Reserve's mandate of 2%. Shelter inflation has proven to be sticky, but recent trends in rent inflation and housing prices show that those are also returning to more normal levels.

Interest Rates Continue Moving Lower

Although a handful of Federal Reserve voters tried to walk back some of the rate cuts that have been priced in, market participants did not change their stance. Yields moved lower across the curve during the month, reflecting their expectations for lower rates in the future. The 2-year Treasury yield declined by 0.43% to 4.25%, and the 5-year Treasury yield declined by 0.42% to 3.85%. The yield curve remained inverted at the end of the year and has now been inverted for 18 months.

Even with the recent decline in interest rates, bond yields remain attractive and above long-term averages. If market participants and the Federal Reserve are correct, locking in yields at these levels will be beneficial to portfolio yields.
