Communities In Schools of North Texas

Same as agency address

Lewisville, TX 75067

Monday-Friday 7:30am-6:30pm

Eligibility: Provides in-school dropout prevention case management services to Denton and Wise county students who are considered to be at-risk of dropping out of school and/or economically disadvantaged..

Fees: None

Application: Children are referred to the program by teachers, school administrators, parents or themselves. Students must attend a school where CISNT program exists and qualify based on need in order to be enrolled in the program. Questions about student qualifications may be directed to Program Directors.

Area of Service: Bridgeport ISD, Denton ISD, Lake Dallas ISD, Lewisville ISD, Little Elm ISD, Northwest ISD

Program: CISNT is the primary provider of research-based, holistic dropout prevention services including academic tutoring, counseling, one-to-one mentoring, parental and family engagement, and individualized case management services for students at-risk in grades K-12 living in North Texas. CISNT operates programs within two distinct dropout prevention strategies.

Dropout Prevention Case Management Campus Programs

serve students each year in grades K-12 who are referred by their teacher, counselor, or principal as at-risk of dropping out of school. CIS Site Coordinators develop a case management plan to help students' at-risk get back on track towards academic success, graduation, and success in college and career. CISNT case management programs utilize a research-based, six-component service model which includes: supportive guidance and counseling; health and human services; parental and family involvement; career awareness; enrichment activities; and educational enhancements.

CIS Afterschool Centers on Education (ACE) Programs

provide an additional 15-19 hours of academic enrichment each week after school and in the summer. These programs work to improve academics, attendance, and behavior as well as increase promotion to the next grade level and improve graduation rates. CIS ACE programs provide homework completion and tutoring, enrichment groups, mentoring and team building, family and parental support activities, and college and workforce readiness activities that allow students to explore vocational and college opportunities.

Program: Denton City County Day School has been providing quality preschool education to children ages 2-5 in Denton County since 1952. DCCDS is making an impact in the community by providing access to affordable full-day pre-kindergarten programming that will prepare children to be school-ready in reading, writing, math and skills to succeed in school and ultimately in employment. We offer a unique rotation program for our children ages three and up, and we have two large outdoor play areas and a gym. DCCDS offers parents quality care, with qualified staff at affordable weekly fees based on income and family size. DCCDS provided children with breakfast, lunch and an afternoon snack daily that meet or exceed the Child and Food nutrition guidelines at no additional fee. We provide a fun nurturing environment for children to learn, grow and stretch their imaginations.
