

Example 3

For a project, you must cut an 11" by 14" rectangular piece of poster board. Knowing how poorly you usually wield a pair of scissors, you decide to do some measuring to make sure your board is truly rectangular. Thus, you measure the diagonals and determine that they are in fact congruent. Is your board rectangular?

