1. Who is the author of And Then There Were None?

2. What is the setting of And Then There Were None?

3. Why is Vera Claythorne going to the island?

4. What seems to be Dr. Armstrong's "specialty"?

5. What warning does Blore receive from the old man on the train?

6. Which are the rumors surrounding Indian Island?

7. What is the reason Vera thinks she is replacing Mrs. Owen's secretary?

8. How does Lombard avoid answering Vera's question when she asks what the Owens are like?

9. Vera thinks the island looks _______________.

10. What does Fred Narracott think about the guests he is taking to the island in his boat?

11. Who greets the group when they arrive at the house on Indian Island?

12. Where does the butler say Mr. Owen is?
13. Which guest sees the poem first?

14. Which two characters have met in the past?

15. Why can't anyone leave the island?

16. Who thinks something isn't right about their situation?

17. What is in the center of the dining room table?

18. What hangs above the mantlepiece in each of the bedrooms in the island mansion?

19. The guests arrive, get situated, and have a nice dinner. What happens after dinner?

20. What is the title of the record Rogers played?

21. What reason does Emily Brent give for coming to Indian Island?

22. Of what crime does the "voice" accuse each person in the house?

23. What conclusion does Wargrave come to about the owner of the house?

24. What accusation is made against Wargrave?

25. Who is the one person who refused to speak about the charges made against them?

26. What happens to Anthony Marston?
27. In Judge Wargrave's thoughts, he remembered that he had "cooked Seton's goose". What literary device is that?

28. What discovery does Rogers make when he goes to clear the dinner dishes from the dining room?

29. How do the other guests think Anthony Marston died?

30. Who was Hugo?

31. What news does Rogers bring to Dr. Armstrong?

32. What are the guests anxious about on their first morning on the island?

33. Who does Blore suspect is responsible for Mrs. Rogers's death?

34. What conclusion does General Macarthur make about everyone being lured to the island?

35. Which two characters assure each other they will not allow the events taking place to get to them as they have to General Macarthur?

36. What has Rogers particularly upset at the end of chapter 6?

And Then There Were None Chapters 7-12

1. What does Emily Brent suspect about Mr. and Mrs. Rogers?

2. Who is Beatrice Taylor?
3. Why doesn't Lombard believe Mrs. Rogers killed herself?

4. How does Armstrong suspect the Rogers killed their employer?

5. What do Lombard and Armstrong conclude about the nursery rhyme?

6. After their search, what do Blore, Armstrong, and Lombard discover about the island?

7. Who has accepted their fate and waits patiently for the final outcome?

8. How has Emily Brent decided to pass the time?

9. What is the sound Blore, Armstrong, and Lombard hear from upstairs?

10. After searching the entire house, what do Armstrong, Blore, and Lombard conclude?

11. What suggestion does Blore make about Mrs. Rogers's death?

12. What does Blore demand to know from Lombard?

13. What does Lombard confess actually brought him to Indian Island?

14. What observation does Vera make about the weather?

15. How does Macarthur die?

16. What did Vera and Rogers discover in the dining room right after General Macarthur's body is found on the beach?
17. Vera trys to convince Lombard this person is the murderer.

18. What is the first thing all the guests, but one, do when they go to their rooms at the end of chapter 10?

19. What does Rogers do to prevent the disappearance of more Indian figures?

20. "...he wanted to link up with some nice little bit rather less long in the tooth" is what literary device?

21. What news does Lombard share with Blore when he wakes him up?

22. What happened to Rogers?

23. Why does Vera begin to laugh uncontrollably?

24. What is Beatrice Taylor doing in Emily Brent's dream?

25. What does Blore confess to Lombard?

26. What does Emily Brent see in the dining room as she waits for the feeling of giddiness to go away?

27. How is Emily Brent murdered?

28. Who immediately falls under suspicion for the murders?
29. What does Lombard find is missing from his bedside table?

30. What are the potentially lethal drugs put for safekeeping?

And Then There Were None Chapters 13-Manuscript

1. At the beginning of chapter 13, who are the five remaining guests?

2. "Like a wary old tortoise, Justice Wargrave sat hunched up..." is an example of what literary device?

3. When Vera goes to her room to rest, what causes her to scream in terror?

4. When Wargrave's body is discovered, what is strange about his appearance?

5. What foods are left for the survivors to eat?

6. Who finds the revolver?

7. What does Vera see in her room that she had not noticed before?

8. Who hears someone sneaking around the house and decides to investigate?

9. Who disappears at the end of chapter 14?

10. Throughout chapters 13 and 14, how do the characters feel about each other?
11. At the beginning of chapter 15, what change has occurred in the weather?

12. How does Lombard suggest the survivors contact the people on the mainland?

13. What does Vera suddenly remember about the nursery rhyme that makes her think Dr. Armstrong is still alive?

14. What happens to Blore?

15. What do Vera and Lombard find that pits them against each other?

16. When staring at Lombard on the beach, to what does Vera compare his face?

17. What does Vera do when she and Lombard are dragging Dr. Armstrong's body away from the sea?

18. What happens to Philip Lombard?

19. Who does Vera believe is waiting for her in her bedroom?

20. How does Vera die?

21. What does the Assistant Commissioner of Scotland Yard find on Indian Island?

22. Who is Isaac Morris?

23. Why didn't the people of Stricklehaven try to make contact with anyone on the island?
24. Why did Fred Narracott take his boat over to Indian Island?

25. What makes the inspector absolutely certain Vera Claythorne had not committed the murders?

26. How do the police manage to figure out who murdered the Indian Island guests?

27. Who was the Indian Island killer?

28. Why did the murderer chose these 10 victims?

29. Which of the killer's victims did not actually die on Indian Island?

30. How did he killer manage to complete the scheme without being caught by the others?